FORTUNE SMILED ONC HOOSIERS UNABLE TO WIN BOT GAMES FROM KANSAS CITY. Crowley Did Good Work in First Con test-Volz Was Hit Hard in Second Battle-Scores. curves in the first game yesterday after noon, the Hoosiers were seized with cramps or some other serious aliment and Durham made them look like hospital subjects in the second game. The first game resulted 6 to 1 in favor of Indianapolis, but the fickle fortune goddess reversed the table and the luck indicator pointed so strongly toward Kansas City that the visitors won by a score of 9 to 0. From clever batting and good pitching in the first game favoring Indianapolis, the tide in the second conand also the good twirling.

contest that he had drawn a very lucky prize in signing Pitcher Crowley, the product from southern Ohio, and the spectators who witnessed the tall young lad do slab work were inclined to believe that a good man had been secured. Crowley sesses a great deal of self-confidence, a large percentage of any battle with a young pitcher. In addition, he showed an assortment of good curves and speed which he mixed up in such a fashion that the Blues did not relish them. Only five hits were secured off him during the nine innings and in only one round, the fifth, did the visitors make a show of clustering any safe ones. To the delight of the spectators, the Hoosiers took very kindly to Coon's delivery and with the aid of many rors, made the game safe in the fifth

But what a different spectacle in the secbattle! Manager Watkins assigned Volz to the mound and while he had everything under the cloudy sky at his command, he seemed unable to do any mysterious work after the third inning, and the visitors toyed with his curves, speed and slow balls until it seemed like a shame for them to lambast the ball so hard. To make matters more pathetic. Durham, who was on the slab for Kansas City. gave the Hoosiers an evil wink and laughed fiendishly at them as they tried to drop the ball in safe territory only to have he sphere land in a player's mit. Dur-nam was given beautiful support, the infielders stopping everything that was shipped their way, while the outfielders got under many long files.

HOW FIRST GAME WAS WON. The spectators seemed to forget the glory of the first victory when the Hoosiers made so many fluky attempts to get into the second contest and long before the second battle was finished the crowd began leaving the park.

Twirler Crowley opened the first battle issuing transportation to Gear, but he didn't seem to mind the slight disadvantage at all. The next three men proved easy victims. The first circuit trotters appeared in the third inning, when Kihm and Hogriever scored for Indianapolis. Kihm hit to left and advanced to third on Fox's fly. Hogriever walked and pilfered second. rady made a throw to catch Kihm off hird, but the ball went into left field and Kihm and Hogriever scored. One was added in the fourth, when O'Brien singled, went to second on a sacrifice and scored on Marcan's single. Two more made the circuit in the fifth. Kihm opened with a two-base drive to left. Fox placed a single in the same garden and on Knoll's wild throw to the plate, Kihm scored and Fox pranced around to third. Woodruff's single scored Fox. The last one credited to Inliarapolis was secured in the seventh. Woodruff bounded an easy one to Rothfuss. o made a wild throw to first, Woodruff taking third. Coulter's single scored him. FOR AN EXHIBITION MILE

LOU DILLON, CHAMPION TROTTER, MAY BE SEEN AT STATE FAIR.

Negotiations Now Pending to Secure the Great Mare-Ashbrook Entered in Horse Show.

Lou Dillon (2:00) the champion trotter, may be seen in an exhibition mile against time at the Indiana State fair next month. If this wonderful trotting mare can be secured she will attract the largest crowd to see her exhibition that ever gathered at the fair grounds.

Charles Downing, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, is in correspondence with Mr. Billings and Mr. Sanders, owner and trainer of the great mare, and the negotiations that have been opened may be closed early next week. It is known that Mr. Sanders desires to ship the mare to this | The Minute Man (Cochran) 122 part of the country, and in view of the fact that no big race meet is given the same week as the Indiana State fair it is very probable that the champion trotter may be secured for an exhibition. If Lou Dillon is brought here for an exhibition it is possible that John A. Me-Kerron may also be sent for an exhibition | Collector Jessup (Creamer) 114 mile over the Indianapolis track. Secretary Downing also announced yes terday that the entries of six of A. E. DELHI PICKED TO WIN RICH FU-TURITY AT SHEEPSHEAD.

Hamburg Belle, the Popular Favorite, May Not Start-Abdell Considered in the Money.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.-Rain has spoiled a Futurity which promised to have the largest field and one of the most closely matched in the history of the greatest race for two-year-olds in the world. Only nineteen colts and fillies are carded over night for the stake, which will be worth about $50,000 to the winner. One-third of these may be missing when the saddling bell rings, for the only chance to earn a premium on the $250 it will cost to start each of them, seems to lie in the uncertaintities of a sprint through mud.

Hamburg Belle, the popular favorite, is marked "doubtful," and the Keene entry, Delhi, Kohinoor and Dovecote, will almost certainly be the betting favorite. The entries, weights and probable jockeys follow: Jockey. Horse.

Delhi (Gannon) Highball (Winkfield) 127 Raglan (Hicks) 124 Leonidas (Burns) Kohinoor (McCafferty) 117 Mercury (Redfern) 117 Beldame (Bullman) 116 Audience (Jenkins) 114 Lady Amelia (Reed) 114 Hamburg Belle (Fuller) 114 Gettysburg (Connell) 117 Midshipman (H. Callahan) 117 Little Em (J. Martin) 114

The Coney Island Jockey Club's course at Sheepshead Bay never becomes very heavy as it is hard underneath, but a steady, soaking rain has fallen for twenty-four consecutive hours and the weather man promises another twenty-four hours of the same. Consequently the track will be at its worst and the Futurity chute will be especially bad. This means almost certainly that Hamburg Belle will not start. No chances are taken with J. B. Haggin's

Delhi, coupled with the other Keene entries, will be the favorite and deservedly so. He has steadily improved in races and, though beaten once by Broomstick, Delhi suffered then at the start. The two are by Ben Brush, but the latter has worked seven-eighths in 1:26, the three-quarters in 1:13, with 105 pounds up, and won his last race under 112 pounds on a slow track in 1:13 1-5. Still Broomstick is fast and sturdy and Odom will ride. He will have many supporters. Of the others Abdell will carry the Madden colors, as will the Minute Man and Gettysburg. Abdell will have O'Nelli's services, which means much. On a fast track the Plauditt colt won a six furlong sprint in 1:12 4-5. John E. Madden bought Gettysburg a month ago, and Madden never kept a bad horse. Gettysburg is by Hamburg, and in his only race was tangled up through greenness, but was overhauling Magistrate in the Tremont stakes, run on a very heavy track. Highball's unexpected return to stake form at Saratoga makes him formidable on paper to Delhi. Little Em is the outsider most tipped She has done well in poor company.

W. C. Whitney's candidates are not con-This is the Futurity, however, and the great prize of the junior racing division. To win that crown the millionaire turfmen prepare for years. The pick of the great racing establishments of America will struggle for the $50,000 prize. The year has not shown a Domino or a Hamburg, from 6 to 5 to even money, ran away with but the evenness of quality is of excellence,

From the speculative side the race promises to be excellent. Hamburg Belle will carry the wagers of most bettors, if not the most money, if she starts. Her owners and trainer have bet heavily upon her, but (Ferrell), 8 to 1, second; The Meteor, 108 | they withdrew Waterboy from the Suburban on account of a dangerous track when they stood to win $100,000 on him, and the race seemed at his mercy. The bookmakers to-night make Hamburg Belle and the Keene entry equal favorites at 4 to 1, with Madden three at sixes. Broomstick, coupled with Audience, at eight, the Whitney stable

WON FIRST MONEY WITH PRINCE OF ORANGE AND MAJOR C.

Dillon Boy Won the 2:16 Trot, Driven by Ed Benyon-Pool Selling Stopped at Readville.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.-Pool selling was stopped at the Readville trots to-day by the police of Dedham.

The driving of Cox was a feature of the day's racing. He won both his races, receiving applause from the spectators. Prince of Orange was an even money favorite for the 2:08 trot, Dan T. being the hope of the field buyers. Unfortunately for them Dan T. made a break in the first heat at the seven-eighths pole, when closing fast on the favorite and again in the second at the half, which ruined his chances for the race and Prince of Orange

A big plunge was made on Frank Wilson for the 2:13 pace, even in the face of the fact that Major C. had defeated him at (Howell), 6 to 5, second; Baronet, 105 (F. Brighton Beach last week. In the initial heat Cox, with Major C., kept hard after Fandango, b. g., by Wilksonian Frank Wilson, making him pace the heat in 2:061/4 in order to win. This took a lot gelding, as was shown by his giving it up it Scott Hudson did not want to start Dillon Boy in the 2:16 trot, but as he had not withdrawn him from the race last evening according to the rules, the judges compelled him to start the horse. Hudson, on account of his suspesion, engaged Ed Benyon to drive for him. Dillon Boy won both heats. only after a most severe drive the last hundred yards. It was his second victory o the week. Another to win twice in the meeting was Al Bock, but he only had a good workout to take the 2:19 pace. Sum-

Running Races at Muncie. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

Black Pet, blk. m., by Amsterdam

MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 28.-The fifty-first Delaware county fair closed to-night with a good card of running races. The drizzle of rain, which dampened the afternoon races, ceased and 6,000 persons were out to see the night races. In the threefourths-mile dash Boitte slipped on the turn and threw Jockey Kilsay. Widow Mc-Googan, with Jockey Brammenburg up. stumbled over Boitte. Neither jockey was hurt. Both horses circled the track eight times before they were caught. Several persons, who swarmed on the track, were knocked down, but no one was injured.

FUN AT $600 A WEEK. Acrobatic Group Doing Well About This Time.

Brooklyn Eagle. I was behind the scenes at the Orpheum the other night. A troupe of five athletes from the Island of Malta were dressed in their tights, ready for their act, which was not to come on for some time yet. Every now and then one of them would throw a somersault, or two would perform some athletic stunt togther, or the whole five would break out into a frelic involving some wonderful feat of strength or agility, All this behind the scenes, where the audi ence could not see them.

"I suppose you do this to limber up for your act." I said to one of them. "No," he grinned, "we're just fooling." "Fun, is it?" I asked.
"Yes. Good fun. We like to do it." I stood in the wings and watched them do their turn before the audience. They seemed to enjoy it as much as the spectators did. When they came off the stage they repeated several of their feats on the way to their dressing rooms. "How much do the five chaps get?" I afterward asked of Percy G. Williams, "Six hundred dollars a week." he answered. Think of five young fellows getting $120 apiece each week for just having fun! Isn't it somewhat of a suggestion to peo-ple who go grunting and growling to their daily work? Possibly a good many of us would get a lot more out of life if we would fall in love with out vocation.
